This tour can be combined with other tours and hiking routes in Florence and Siena, which can be found on the Menu.

A convenient way to access all the museums is by the Firenze Card

The proposed activity is not a joinable tour, but a private tour that can be arranged upon request for individuals or groups through a tourist agency. The tour can be customised based on the customer's preferences, including the start time, meeting place, and duration.

Duration of the San Marco tour

The tour can last up to 3 hours and covers the highlights of the museum: the Beato Angelico painting hall, the Chapter House, the Michelozzo's Library, the Savonarola's cell, the Beato Angelico frescos, the Cosimo the Elder's cell and the Ghirlandaio's Last Supper.

Cost of the San Marco private tour

The cost for the private guided tour is, up to 3 hours, € 180.00 (total price and not per person).

For more information on rates and available deals, click here.

Radio rental compulsory from 4 people onwards

For groups of 5 or more people, renting radio devices to facilitate listening to the guide's explanations and ensure social distancing outdoors and indoors is highly recommended. For visits inside the San Marco Museum, radios are mandatory for groups of 4 or more people. The guide will arrange the rental service, but the cost of €1.50 per person for up to 3 hours, will be charged to the customer. The payment can be made directly to the guide, who will handle the payment to the supplier.

Carers or teachers of school groups are exempt from paying for radio rentals.

Booking and information

San Marco museum tickets can be bought by clicking here.

The guide does not provide private transport service, which entails the client's needs to reach the meeting point established in the route on his own.

To get the contact of a licensed driver who provides private transfer service, as well as get further information about the tour, please write to: info@guidaturistica-michelebusillo.com, also on Whatsapp or Telegram.

How to book the tour?

The tour can be booked by writing an email, calling +393332591526 or texting the guide (also via Whatsapp or Telegram) to check availability for the requested day. The payment for the tour can be made after the service, by credit card or cash.

Cancellation Policy

It is the responsibility of the guide to guarantee the guide service in any case. If, even for personal reasons, the guide is unable to perform the service on the date set with the client, it will be his concern to contact a reliable colleague who can replace him and therefore guarantee customer service.

The cancellation of the tour from the client can be done free of charge by giving timely notice to the guide 48 hours before the date and time agreed for the service. In this case, the customer doesn't have to pay anything. If instead cancellation is made by the customer when there are less than 48 hours before the date agreed for the service, the customer must pay an amount corresponding to 50% of the total rate.

The eventual tickets bought by the guide for the museums, whose money was advanced by the customer, are not refundable.

Cancellation can be made by promptly communicating it to the guide via email, calling the number +393332591526 or texting (also via Whatsapp or Telegram).

How to reach the San Marco Museum?

By car

Reachable via the A1 motorway (Firenze Scandicci exit and from there continue towards the centre, reaching the area of the Santa Maria Novella station, where there is a multi-storey underground car park (reachable only for vehicles with engines from EURO 6 onwards). From the station underpass, San Marco Museum is 20 minutes far by walk.

As a cheaper alternative to the underground car park, there is the Piazzale Montelungo car park (always subject to charges). An excellent alternative to car parking near the historic centre is to leave the vehicle at the Villa Costanza car park and from there take the T1 tram line which takes about 22 minutes to reach the Santa Maria Novella station. The T1 line has stops both before and after the Santa Maria station Novella that can be convenient to reach any accommodation For more information on the Tramvia timetables and stops click here.

By private bus lines

There are connections of private lines to reach Florence, such as Italbus and Flixbus which reach the Villa Costanza tramway station; from the latter the tram line takes about 22 minutes to reach Santa Maria Novella station. For more info on the Tramvia timetables click here.

By Plane

Florence can be reached by plane via the Amerigo Vespucci Airport. From here the historic centre is connected:

By tram

The T2 line of the Tramway connects Florence Airport with the centre and arrives at Piazza dell'Unità italiana. For more info on the Tramvia timetables click here.

With Taxi

Contactable at the numbers +390554643159 at +390554242 or on the website by clicking here.

By train

Florence can be reached by train with the Trenitalia service. Depending on your accommodation needs, you can arrive in Firenze Santa Maria Novella, Firenze Rifredi or Firenze Campo di Marte. With the regional lines then Florence can also be reached from other cities of Tuscany.

Organised groups with a tourist coach

For organised groups by touristic bus, there are drop-off/drop-on points for passengers in the urban centre of Florence (click here to view the points).

Tourist coaches are subject to the payment of a checkpoint (more information here).

By Camper

Camper owners find car parks for campers (only some of these are equipped) in Via delle Porte Sante, in Piazza Vittorio Veneto, in Viale Abramo Lincoln, in Via Luigi Castaldi, in Largo Alcide De Gasperi, at the Florence Scandicci Park (the latter connected to the centre with the Nelli-Torregalli tram stop).
